What is HPRP?

The Homelessness Prevention and Rapid Re-Housing Program, also known as HPRP, is a program created by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 which provides assistance to households to help prevent and reduce homelessness. In Rhode Island, HPRP Provides temporary financial assistance and housing relocation and stabilization services to individuals and families who are homeless or would be homeless but for this assistance.

What will the Info Session cover?

The HPRP Information Session will cover:

- Client Eligibility Requirements for HPRP
- How and Where to Make Referrals to HPRP
- Opportunities to Partner with HPRP Providers

Who should attend?

Any case workers or program coordinators from shelters, food pantries, soup kitchens, and other social service agencies serving the community are invited to attend. There is no need to RSVP, just attend the session that serves your community.
